Topics for Discussion

Chairman Starkey welcomed the legislative delegation and Senator Ed Hooper for opening remarks.

Senator Hooper noted that the meeting was a good idea for discussion and expressed his appreciation for the legislators and the local county governance.

Mr. Carballa spoke regarding the previous hurricanes, the water rescues, the shelters that were provided, temporary housing for the citizens that were displaced, and the debris pick up.

Discussion followed regarding the number of homes that were damaged; the assistance from County employees; repair costs; the FEMA Flood Insurance Plan, and a Comprehensive Storm Water and Flooding workshop refresher.
